This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) by way of a motion filed by Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company (Southern Bell) and by a letter from Carl F. McIntosh, Esquire, on behalf of the Consumer Advocate for the State of South Carolina (Consumer Advocate).

By Motion filed June 18, 1993, Southern Bell moved before this Commission to withdraw its Petition for Intervention in this Docket.

By its letter dated June 24, 1993, the Consumer Advocate informed the Commission that upon reviewing the proposed tariff filed by Professional Communications Management Services, Inc. the Consumer Advocate would not participate in the hearing scheduled in this Docket.

The Commission has reviewed the motion of Southern Bell and the letter from the Consumer Advocate. In light of the fact that Southern Bell and the Consumer Advocate no longer wish to participate in this proceeding, the Commission finds and concludes that the request to withdraw intervention by Southern Bell and the request to withdraw from participation in the hearing by the Consumer Advocate should be, and hereby are, granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The motion to withdraw intervention by Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company is hereby granted.

2. The request to withdraw from participation in the hearing by the Consumer Advocate for the State of South Carolina is hereby granted.
